

Postponement of Residual Debt Services Limited's publication of results and conference call

Due to an existing, previously disclosed matter that requires further consideration, Craig Du Plessis, the curator of Residual Debt Services Limited (under curatorship) ("RDS") believes it prudent to postpone the publication of the RDS results for the year ended 30 September 2018 and related conference call, which was scheduled for 19 November 2018.

RDS is working to resolve the matter and will revert in due course with a new date and time for the publication of the results.

We apologise for any inconvenience caused.

Regards Louise
